

TRANSPARENCY ACCOUNTABILITY JUSTICE

Julian Assange WikiLeaks Party candidate in Victoria

"The values of transparency and accountability and resistance under pressure that I have developed through hard experience with WikiLeaks, that is what we intend to take to Canberra."

Julian Assange is the founder and editor in chief of WikiLeaks.

WikiLeaks Party candidates in New South Wales

Kellie Tranter

"I'm running because our government simply doesn't give people accurate information, it is incapable of having Australia stand in the world as an independent nation and its policies often don't reflect public opinion."

Kellie Tranter is a lawyer and human rights activist, working and commentating on issues like climate change, human rights, gender equality, unjustified wars and economic exploitation.

Alison Broinowski

"Secrecy empowers governments, it doesn't protect citizens from them."

Dr. Alison Broinowski is an academic, journalist, writer and former Australian public servant with particular interest in Asian affairs and cultural and political issues.

The WikiLeaks Party strives fearlessly for truth and good governance on the part of our parliament regardless of who is in power.

Our unassailable core is transparency, accountability and justice, across each and every aspect of government.
